Search the Polk City Directories by address back to 1901. The name of the person living there is listed and sometimes the place where the person was employed.

Once you have names you can check any book about Pocatello to see if they are mentioned.

Cemetery Listings give burial dates which help you locate obituaries.

"Discovering the History of Your House and Your Neighborhood" by Betsy J. Green (907.2 GRE) checks out and there is also a copy in the Reference Collection.
