FROM THE STACKS

Every Fifteen Minutes

by Lisa Scottoline
FIC Scottoline, Li

Dr. Eric Parrish, a brilliant and caring psychiatrist, has been unknowingly targeted by a sociopath. His hands are already full, having recently separated from his wife and trying his best to be a single dad to his seven-year-old daughter. Now, Eric faces a new challenge in the form of a troubled teenaged boy who harbors an obsessive crush on a girl. Because of secrets this boy divulges in therapy, Eric grows concerned for the girl's safety and becomes embroiled in a dangerous dilemma: should he report his potentially dangerous patient to the authorities?

Just as Eric reaches his decision, the unimaginable happens and the game is on! The clock begins ticking and Eric finds himself plunged into a living nightmare... at the hands of a sociopath bent on destroying his practice, his family, and his life.

I loved this thriller and most especially, the small chapters that were from the perspective of the sociopathic personality. I highly recommend it!

KANOPY OFFERS GREAT MOVIES AND KIDS' PROGRAMMING

Did you know your library card gets you access to hundreds of movies and kids' programs? It's true! The library offers patrons Kanopy, an app that offers documentaries, movies, indie films, and kid's shows, all for free! Each month, your account resets with 10 play credits to watch what you want. Choose from classics, newer movies, festival favorites, PBS kids' series, animated story books, and children's movies. And kids' programming is unlimited, meaning you don't have to use your play credits!

You can access Kanopy via your mobile device by downloading the app; by clicking the link on our website; and through Roku, Apple TV, Chromecast, Android TV, Fire TV, and Samsung Smart TV.

MPL PRESENTS...

Alyssa Marton

Alyssa is a page at MPL and a student studying Chemistry and Biology at Idaho State University. Her hobbies include reading, drawing, and playing games. She enjoys spending time with her dog and tending to her wide array of plants. Alyssa is excited to be a library page and has enjoyed being surrounded by books and discovering new titles. She says her list of things to read has become exponentially bigger since working here!

BOOK WAGON MAKEOVER!

The MPL Book Wagon recently received a much needed makeover! The Friends of the Marshall Public Library (FoMPL) donated funds to have the wagon "wrapped". Old, damaged signage was removed and new signage was placed on two sides of the wagon. We are very grateful to FoMPL and SignUp Signs & Graphics (who designed and put the "wrap" on) for the beautiful update to the wagon!

Keep an eye out at local parks this summer for the Book Wagon to show up during School District #25 lunch times for a chance to pick up a free book!
