FLY FISHING AND FLY-TYING DISPLAY

For the month of July on the 2nd floor, we are displaying flies and materials from Southeast Idaho fly-tying experts and fishermen. Flies featured are from local fly fisherman and fly-tying legends from the past and present with flies of many different types and styles. Flies, tools, materials, and photos will be included in our display. We will have books available for check out to assist you in learning this fun and interesting hobby should you feel inspired to tie some flies of your own!

FROM THE STACKS: "MEMORIAL" BY BRIAN WASHINGTON

Mike and Benson are two young men living together, and their relationship is on the rocks. Mike gets word that his estranged father is terminally ill just as Mike's mother, Mitsuko, comes to visit. So Mike leaves to go care for his dying father, leaving Mitsuko and Benson in each other's company. This is a novel invested in themes of identity, connection, family, and grief. Its brightest moments displays love and sincerity from relationships that stem from the most unexpected places. I highly recommend Memorial for any other food lovers, strangers in strange lands, or card carrying members of the Dead Dad Club. - R.A.S.
