

THE BOOKMARK

HISTORY THROUGH ARTIFACTS

In honor of the Idaho Heritage Conference held this month on the campus of Idaho State University, Marshall Public Library is featuring historical artifacts from our darkest, most obscure corners. You can find them in the public display cases on the second floor. Information about the conference is also available. Don't miss it!

WHAT'S NEW IN THE LIBRARY?

We would like to welcome

Abby & Thalia

to our library team! Abby is our new Management Assistant, and Thalia is our new Page.

We look forward to working with them, and getting to know them better!

We said a sad farewell to Cresta and Stacie, but wish them the best in their new adventures.

SEPTEMBER BOOK DISPLAYS

Check out a book from one of our great displays!

NEW STORY TIME SCHEDULES!

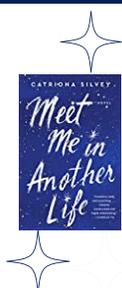

It's time for Back to School and the Marshall Public Library is getting ready with our new schedule for story times! On Mondays and Wednesdays, we will have two options to attend Tales for Tots - our preschool program best suited for kids ages 3-5. On Mondays, we'll have our Infant Lap Sit Program - which is designed for parents and infants up to 18 mos. Then on Wednesdays, we have Terrific Toddlers - our program for kiddos who are in-between. Hope to see you there!

MULTILINGUAL FAMILY STORYTELLING NIGHT!

September 7th is the kick off of a new storytime program that will be held on the first Wednesday of each month at 5:30pm. Patrick Mitchell, known as the "Down to Earth Dad" (<https://downtoearthdad.org/>), has received a grant from the Idaho Association for the Education of Young Children to share his unique storytelling method that promotes a blend of early literacy and family engagement. He works with the parents while the children participate in a more traditional story time experience while also making cookies. Each month will feature a speaker of another language sharing stories from around the world in order to better appreciate our differences while also finding our commonalities.

FROM THE STACKS: "MEET ME IN ANOTHER LIFE" BY CATRIONA SILVEY

Thora and Santi instantly connect when they meet for the first time. But days later, a tragic accident cuts their story short. Or does it? Life after life, they reconnect. Each time the roles in their relationship change. As they start to remember each other from one life to the next, and delve into the mystery of their recurring lives, more questions arise. Part sci-fi, part love-story this mystery will keep you guessing until the end!
