LET'S TALK! ENGLISH CONVERSATION HOUR IS MAKING A COMEBACK

Starting Tuesday, March 12th at 6pm Let's Talk, the library's weekly English conversation hour will be making a comeback. We will gather as a group to play games, eat snacks, and talk together. We encourage adult English language learners in our community to join us and receive the support they need as they practice their English skills. We will also share library resources that can be used outside of gatherings to work on your skills at home. Our meetings will take place at a table near the kids play area, so parents with children can feel free to participate. All skill levels are welcomed.
