Family Book Walk

June 14, July 12, and August 2 from 10 am - 2 pm. Come and enjoy a friendly open-air stroll, exercising both mind and body on our Family Book Walk! Each stop on the path displays the next page with additional information, an activity or questions.

Fun Summer Activities

Complete at least 10 in any order.

Bring in with your reading log after August 9 for an extra entry into the grand prize drawing

Build a little den and read in it.	Paint a picture about a book you read.
Visit the library's Book Wagon or Book Walk.	Make an alphabet book.
Read a book about nature.	Read a recipe and make it for your family.
Read a book about outer space.	Tell a grownup a story you make up yourself.
Read to a cat, dog, other pet, or even a stuffed animal.	Make up a song and perform it for your family.
Write a letter to a grandparent and mail it.	Read under the covers with a flashlight.
Draw on the sidewalk with chalk.	Read ten picture books.
Paint a picture about a book you read.	Read or listen to a book, then draw a picture about it.
Read a book and then draw a new cover for it.	Play a rhyming game with someone.
Read a book your mom or dad read when they were young.	Get your very own library card and use it.
