THE BOOKMARK

THE ISLAMIC SOCIETY OF SOUTHEASTERN IDAHO AND THE POCATELLO MOSQUE:

This year marks the tenth anniversary of the opening of the Pocatello Mosque, a place where the spiritual, educational, and social needs of the local Muslim community can be met. The Marshall Public Library will host a public display where community members can learn more about the Mosque as well as the Islamic Society of Southeastern Idaho, a member of the Portneuf Valley Interfaith Council. The display will feature articles from the Idaho State Journal about the opening of the Mosque from 2014 as well as pictures of the building's conversion from a restaurant to a Mosque.

Drop off your locally grown fresh produce (including herbs) at the first floor desk, and the library will transport the food to the food bank. If you have homegrown produce to spare, bring it to the library anytime through October and we'll help it get to our community members who need it the most.
