We will have volunteers from the League of Women Voters Pocatello present a short 15-20 minute presentation about Vote411.org and the registration process at 6pm. The summer sun has many local gardens overflowing with fruit and vegetables. The library's Garden to Give program helps you to easily get your extra garden bounty to the Idaho Food Bank. Drop off your locally grown fresh produce (including herbs) at the first floor desk, and the library will transport the food to the food bank. If you have homegrown produce to spare, bring it to the library anytime through October and we'll help it get to our community members who need it the most.
