BOOKMARK

BLACK HISTORY MONTH DISPLAY:

For the second year in a row, the Pocatello branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) will have a public display at the Marshall Public Library. This display will center on the Historic Triangle Neighborhood, which was the home of a diverse group of Black, Asian, Italian, Greek, and French residents during the early twentieth century. It will also honor the legacy of five prominent members of the organization recently lost, namely Kenneth Monroe, Billy Lake, John Mackay, Jim Robinson, and Jim Johnston. The display will be up for the entire month of February in honor of Black History Month.
