THE BOOKMARK*80TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE END OF WWII DISPLAY :

August 15, 1945, was Victory over Japan Day, also known as VJ Day. It was also a day of Liberation and Freedom for thousands of American and Allied troops-- men and women, and also freedom for Allied Civilian internees: children, women and men. This month marks the 80th anniversary of the end of their suffering under horrific conditions. It is a time for all Americans to honor their sacrifices in the name of Freedom and Democracy. It is also a time to remember the Gold Star Mothers and Families and those who made the ultimate sacrifice by laying down their lives in the name of Freedom.

SCHOOL SUPPLY AND HYGIENE PRODUCT DRIVE:

Help Local Students Start the Year Strong

As you shop for school supplies this year, consider picking up a few extras for students in need.

From August 1 to September 13, Marshall Public Library is collecting school supplies and toiletry items for the Pocatello/Chubbuck School District #25 supply pantry.

Requested items include:

- School Supplies: backpacks, notebooks, folders, paper, pencils, crayons, markers, rulers, and more
- Toiletries: shampoo, soap, deodorant, feminine hygiene products, toothbrushes, towels, and similar essentials

Since launching this annual drive five years ago, community donations have helped thousands of students.

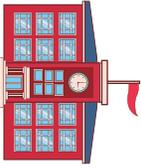

Even small donations make a big impact! If you can pick up an extra box of crayons, it helps a child start the school year right!

Drop off new, unopened items at the first-floor checkout desk
