ACT TICKETS ARE BACK!:

Marshall Public Library's Arts and Community Tickets (ACT) program returns this fall, offering free tickets to local cultural events, thanks to the Friends of the Library.

To kick off the season:

- 🎭 One Day at a Time - Symphony tickets available Sept. 20
- 🎭 Vanya and Sonia and Masha and Spike - Theatre tickets available Sept. 27

Adult Pocatello city residents with a Marshall Public Library card can "check out" one pair of tickets per event (admits 2 people—1 must be an adult; children must be 6+). Tickets are limited and available the Saturday before each performance.

More events coming throughout the year!

ADULT CRAFT NIGHT:

September Craft Night: Bedazzle Your Book Cover!

Join us for a sparkly and creative evening on Wednesday, September 24th at 7:00 PM in the Exploration Center at Marshall Public Library. This month, we'll be adding some bling to your favorite books by bedazzling book covers using diamond art! ✨ All materials will be provided—just bring your love for books and a friend! Space is limited, so be sure to register via the QR code on flyers inside the library or on our website. We can't wait to see your dazzling creations!

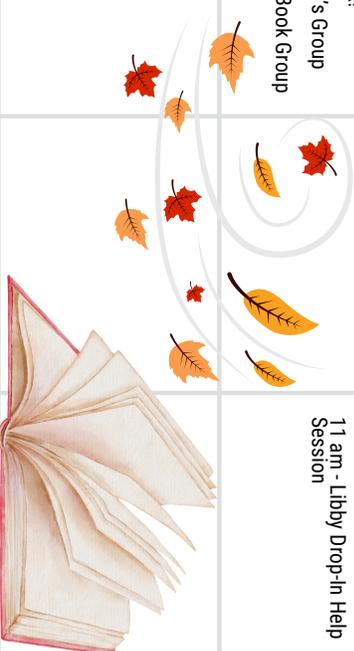

PALATES AND PAGES:

A Literary Feast for Food Lovers - This is the first program in a new series for adults. The Marshall Public Library will host a guest scholar who will oversee a book discussion that fits the above theme. Books will be available for pick up 6 weeks prior to the event. Patrons interested in participating can either obtain their own copy of the book or check one out at the Help Desk. There will be 15 copies available for checkout. As the theme title suggests, all books in the series will be about food, so we will also have themed refreshments as part of the discussion. Book 1: Food, A Love Story by Jim Gaffigan
