SUMMER READING:

Summer Reading is "roaring" back to the Marshall Public Library. Please join us on June 6th from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. to kick off this year's "Unearth Your Story" Program.

At the kickoff event, explorers of all ages can dig into the fun by signing up for the program and enjoying some hands-on activities, including painting dinosaur eggs. It's a fun and creative way to start a great summer full of reading and discovery.

The Summer Reading Program will continue for ten weeks through the summer with dino-sized fun, activities, events, and opportunities for all readers to stay engaged. Whether you are a lifelong learner or just getting started, there is something for everyone.

Participants can track their reading, earn prizes, and explore new stories all summer long. For more information about events, schedules, and how to participate, visit Marshallpl.org, stop into the library or follow along on social media.
